

TENNESSEE GENERAL ASSEMBLY FISCAL REVIEW COMMITTEE

FISCAL NOTE

SB 3229 – HB 3930

February 9, 2010

SUMMARY OF BILL: Requires the Comptroller to conduct a comprehensive study of the use of traffic surveillance cameras. Requires all video evidence from cameras be reviewed by a Peace Officers Standard and Training Commission (POST)-certified officer before citations are issued. Current law requires a law enforcement employee to review evidence.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

Increase State Expenditures – Exceeds $100,000/One-Time

Assumptions:

- According to the Comptroller, conducting a comprehensive study will increase one-time state expenditures at least $100,000. A consultant will be hired to conduct the study.
- Camera evidence is already reviewed by a POST-certified officer.
